BROOKLYN, N.Y.
FEB 7
3-PM
1918

NAVY YARD
STATION

U.S. POSTAGE 1 CENT

U.S. POSTAGE 1 CENT

Miss. Frances Levine,
70 Somers St.
Brooklyn,
N. Y.

Feb. 7th, 1918.

My darling Toots:-
How are you feeling this morning? Any better? How's your lil' chest? Did you go to bed right after I left?
Well did Sadie get word as to Ig? What does she think about that card? I suppose she's pretty well worried over it. Can't blame her, as Hart just told me that he'll probably be landed in the first bunch. They are trying to take Hart's brother-in-law, who is married and causing him so much trouble, he threatens suit. Sure do hope they leave him alone as he has children. They contend that, because he owns a business valued at $15,000, he can get another man to run it for him, who will be able to give the wife an income equal to what she is getting now. Of course that is absurd, but is just goes to show you, what they are trying to do.

As for myself, I was pretty much worried over your health, and to the bargain Pop came home at 12:30. What do you think of that, eh.

Well sweetie mine, take care of yourself, & be careful of your health.

With all my love to my sweet little wife,

Lovingly your hub

Jay.